Department of WORLD LANGUAGES

The Department of World Languages provides instruction in modern world languages with an emphasis on communicative competence and cultural and historical knowledge of the target language; it prepares graduates to understand, communicate, and serve people and communities with compassion throughout the world from a thoughtful Christian perspective.

The Department of World Languages prepares educators for service within public or private schools in the fields of English as a Second Language Education and Spanish Education who engage the learning community through effective, learner-centered practices, and are grounded in educational theory, content knowledge, reflective inquiry, and appreciation for diversity within a Christ-centered worldview.

Spanish Major Bachelor of Arts

The Spanish major focuses on the development of oral proficiency and exposure to Hispanic culture in the Western Hemisphere and in Spain. Students who pursue this major are equipped to use the language in careers in ministry and human services as well as a variety of other careers in which knowledge of the language is deemed important. The major also provides a foundation for graduate studies. Students will spend one semester in Seville, Spain, as participants in the Semester in Spain (SIS) program of Trinity Christian College. The degree is granted upon completion of 125 credits as specified on pages 42–43 (40 credits must be in 3000- or 4000-level courses).
