INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ASSISTANCE POLICY

Northwestern College is deeply concerned about the welfare of every student, especially the student who may come from another country. Many citizens of other countries do not realize the many adjustments required in living and studying in a new culture. Language, social customs, and finances are frequently sources of difficulty.

Northwestern College will determine the average amount of institutional aid available to all students and will set an average grant amount available to international students. This amount or a portion of it will be granted based on the student's demonstrated need as determined from this aid application.
