

Master of Divinity

Northwestern Master of Divinity (M.Div.) students are offered a comprehensive, pre-doctoral degree that combines biblically based, evangelical theology, and Christian ministry. Learning from faculty who are theologians and ministry practitioners, you will explore the knowledge, character, and competencies needed for effective ministry and for further education, if desired.

Program Highlights

- Coursework can be completed in as few as 3.5 years
- Online or on-site/blended learning format
- Classes taught by ministry leaders and internationally known experts on the Dead Sea Scrolls, Old and New Testaments, and minor prophets
- Concentrations available in Biblical Studies, Clinical Pastoral Education, Educational Studies, Human Services, Organizational Leadership, and Practical Theology
- Dynamic discussions with ministry-minded professors and classmates in a rich, nondenominational setting
- Practical experience through integrated internships embedded into the curriculum
- Option to apply for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) hours in place of internship hours

Career Opportunities

With an M.Div. degree, you will be prepared for roles in a variety of settings, such as:

- Chaplaincy
- Church leadership
- Church planting
- Higher education
- Mission work
- Youth ministry
- Advanced/doctorate study

Note: Roles in some settings may require additional education or training.
